

AN INTERNATIONAL SCREENING OF ART FILMS ABOUT HIV/AIDS

BALACLAVA.Q PRESENTS HIVIDEO 2017

Image credit: Mateo Sierra (2017)

FREE ENTRY

BalacIava.Q

Narrow Church of Arts

Location/Venue: Duke Street Lecture Theatre

Date: 1st December 2017 Start time: 5.30pm

For more information: http://store.nua.ac.uk/browse/extra_info.asp?compid=1&modid=1&prodid=698

?

HIVideo 2017 Artists:

Luciano Parisi (Italy)
Menelas and George Kanis (Greece)
Santiago Echeverry (US)
Wilhelm Vincent (South Africa)
Rosanne Robertson (UK)
Dave Russo and Emmanuel Barrouyer (US/France)
Castro (Greece)
Jonathan Armour and Richard Sawdon Smith (UK)
Debbie Sharp (UK)
Jose Luis Cortes and Jorge Pratts (Puerto Rico)
Kristofor Canavan (UK)
Stiofan O'Ceallaigh (UK)
Chris Northey (UK)
Mateo Sierra (Colombia)

December 1 2017

Balaclava.Q is an international queer visual art project & collective which consists of a core team of voluntary creative directors and activists from South Africa, Europe & New Zealand.

Now in it's second year, Balaclava.Q proudly present our annual moving image strand: HIVideo 2017. 14 new art films by 18 artists from across 4 continents that explore HIV/AIDS from a local, international and internal perspectives.

On World AIDS Day HIVideo will be screened simultaneously in Europe: Athens, Paris, Rome, Falmouth, Berlin, Manchester, Norwich, Leeds, USA: Los Angeles, Puerto Rico, Tampa, South Africa: Oudtshoorn.

For more information visit www.balaclavadotq.com and

